Aqua-aerobics for health

The 2009/10 Aqua-aerobics season will commence at the Kandos Swimming Pool on Thursday, November 5 at 10.30am. The group performs low - moderate impact exercises to music. Exercises have been compiled by a physiotherapist to improve mobility and fitness levels and are run by Primary Health staff from Rylstone Health Service. A medical assessment is required for those interested in attending who may have a pre-existing condition. The aim of the group is to make fitness fun and it welcomes participants of all ages. Cost is entry to the pool and participants can register on the day or contact Rylstone Health Centre on 6357 8150 for more information.

KPS School fete

The 5th Annual Kandos Public School P & C Fete will be held at the school on Saturday, November 14 from 10am to 2pm. There will be lots of games and activities for everyone including the dunny toss, whack the rat and a jumping castle. There'll also be face painting, crazy hair, their famous jar lottery, show bags, handicraft, chocolate wheel, plants, lucky dips and lots more. Tuck into plenty of yummy things to eat with a barbecue, fairy floss, and a cake stall. This will be the biggest and best fete yet thanks to major sponsor Dollars N Cents Kandos, the support of the Kandos Craft Group ladies and the hardworking staff, students and parents of Kandos Public School. So come along and have a great day out.

Paws for thought

The Mudgee Guide Dogs Support Group presents "Footprints in the Garden" featuring Jennifer Stackhouse from Gardening Australia Magazine and Belinda Moon, local landscape garden designer on Sunday, November 15 at Frog Rock Wines, Edgell Lane, Mudgee from 10am to 4pm. Come along and support this worthy cause. Jennifer will speak at 10.30am and 1.30am and Belinda will speak at 12midday and 2.30pm. There will also be plant, gift and food stalls and children's activities. Cost is $15per head - children are free. It's on rain, hail or shine. Enquires to 0407 417 291.

Christmas carnival

The Rotary Club of Rylstone-Kandos is holding its Annual Christmas Street Carnival on Sunday November 29 from 2pm til 7pm in association with "Movember". This year the carnival will be held entirely in White Park at the lower end of Angus Avenue Kandos. There'll be a barbecue, chocolate wheel, free jumping castle, merry-go-round and various stalls. Store holders and charities are encouraged to attend. If you wish to book a stall please contact Rod McDonald on 6379 6520 (you must have your own insurance). Santa will arrive at 5-30pm. All welcome for an afternoon of fun and adventure.

Market day

The next Community Markets will be held in the grounds of St Laurence, Kandos on Saturday, November 21 from 9am to 1pm. There'll be a sausage sizzle and Devonshire teas plus a variety of stalls selling books, plants, honey and lots more. Call in for a look and a browse. You can book a stall by phoning 6379 4380.

Church services

The Uniting Church will be conducting weekly church services at the Rylstone Uniting Church from October 4 at 9.30am and also at Running Stream on the third Sunday of each month at 2.30pm.

Art exhibition

Number forty Seven's next art exhibition in Rylstone features the paintings of Reginald Buckland (Sketches on the Tablelands) and Na Lan's new print works. You are invited to join the artists for the exhibition opening on Saturday, November 7 from 4pm to 6pm. The exhibition will run until Sunday, November 29.
